Weary Cowboy

(Words and Music by John Cadley)

I am a weary cowboy, I've been out a long, long time
Riding east from Washington on the northern timber line
I'll let my pony drink here while I watch the clouds roll by
And everyone reminds me of a friend I told goodbye

Oh but how I love these mountains
How I love those northern pines
The music of the night wind when it's howlin'
The magic of the moonlight when it shines

And you have no need to fear me, I'm a law-abiding man
I come from Kansas City and my people work the land

CHORUS

And I'll tell you many stories of people I have known
Each one had a hundred friends, and each one died alone

I am a weary cowboy, I've been out a long, long time
Riding east from Washington on the Northern timber line
Riding east from Washington on the Northern timber line
